Meet RVF Board Member: Tomas Nava

Tomas Nava is one of the directors of the Rebel Venture Fund (RVF) majoring in mathematics.

Why you joined RVF: The main reason why I decided to join RVF was to get a better understanding of how the world of startups and venture capital worked.

Goal for RVF: My goal for RVF would be for the fund to be a driving force in the growth and development of the startup community here in the valley. Being that the startup community is still in its early stages, RVF has a great opportunity to achieve that goal.

Troesh Center for Entrepreneurship and Innovation operates as an administrative unit within the UNLV Lee Business School. As a center of excellence, the Troesh Center is focused on providing opportunities for students, faculty and the community to learn about entrepreneurship.

The center manages the entrepreneurship curriculum across the university, is a hub for entrepreneurship research, supports entrepreneurial activities in southern Nevada, and offers guidance to internal and external stakeholders on obtaining angel capital.

The center also arranges for a limited number of business ideas to be presented to Lee Business School students at the beginning of each fall semester. If accepted, LEE students build investor quality business plans for the projects over the course of an academic year.
