LEE BUSINESS SCHOOL LEE PRIZE

The Lee Business School at UNLV and the Ted and Doris Lee Family Foundation have created a $1M Lee Prize for Innovation and Entrepreneurship with the goal of discovering solutions & providing funding for the process to bring ideas rapidly to market.

More information can be found in the link below!

LEEPRIZE

LEE BUSINESS SCHOOL COVID-19 WEBPAGE

There is now a Lee Business School COVID-19 webpage that provides updates to students specific to the Lee Business school as they become available.

Updates from UNLV can be found here: unlv.edu/coronavirus

Both pages will be updated regularly.

COVID-19 UPDATES FROM LEE

2019-2020 Year in Review

LEE STUDENT ORGANIZATION HIGHLIGHTS

Rebel Venture Fund

The Revel Venture Fund hosted Venture Friday at the Green Street Kitchen on February 21st, celebrating the progress made this semester and to provide a location and opportunity for the RVF family to mingle!
Institute of Managerial Accountants

Accounting students Alex Durham and Ingrid Zarate started the UNLV IMA Chapter last August with the purpose of providing more students with leadership and professional opportunities. In this time, they have hosted and co-hosted over 30 events with grand corporations like Ernst & Young, MGM Grand, and RSM. We have also expanded our membership to 95 students and we are one of the national recipients of the Memorial Education Award.

UNLV Collegiate DECA

In accordance with the National DECA 2019-2020 theme, "Here We Go", this semester, UNLV DECA launched a Here We Go meeting series that focused on corporate team-building, developing your perfect pitch, and learning from the pros. In response to our online transition, the last two meetings of this series has been moved to an online article format. Meetings with professors and business professionals can be found on our website!

Global Entrepreneurship Experience

The Global Entrepreneurship Experience (GEE) is a four-year experiential-based program which admits 20 incoming freshman every year and is open to UNLV students in every major. GEE is recruiting for Cohort 11! If you know any incoming freshman who are interested in entrepreneurship and a scholarship for the minor, make sure to share!

GLOBAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP EXPERIENCE

TROESH CENTER EVENT HIGHLIGHTS

Kristen Hadeed's Permission to Screw Up
In November, we had the opportunity to learn from the Motivational Speaker and Founder of StudentMaid, Kristen Hadeed. This presentation dives into her journey as an entrepreneur and the role that overcoming failure played in her success.

Troesh Center Workshops

The Troesh Center led various workshops this semester that focused on graphic design through Canva, how to build your own website, creating content, and wearable marketing. These workshops gave students the opportunity to define their own brands and bring it to life!

Kristen Hadeed's Permission to Pivot: Adapting a Growth Mindset in a Time of Uncertainty and Change

Kristen Hadeed led another presentation for the Troesh Center titled, "Permission to Pivot" that discussed what students can do in this time to stay motivated and stay engaged when the future is unknown.

LEE EVENT HIGHLIGHTS

Lee Contender Challenge

Every year in the Fall, the Lee Business school hosts the Contender Challenge, which is an Apprentice-like competition open to teams representing UNLV Student Organizations. Students will compete in various unique real-life business challenges allowing them to demonstrate their entrepreneurial strength by applying leadership, teamwork, management and marketing abilities. Congratulations to the Global Entrepreneurship Experience for being the 2019-2020 Contender!

Welcome to the Major

Each semester, the Lee Business School hosts their Welcome to the Major event that celebrates students who have been admitted into the major. As Lee Organizations and Departments come together to share more information, students learn about the different opportunities that the Lee Business School has to offer.
Lee Business School's Office for Academic and Career Success Open House

In February, the open house for the new Office for Academic and Career Success at the Lee Business School was held in their newly renovated space.

Lee Thought Leader Series

UNLV UPCOMING EVENTS

Leading Through Change

Lead is hosting a series on Leading through Change: How to Cope like a Leader beginning May 4th! This online digital series is open to everyone and seeks to lead through change, providing a digital platform for leadership education and personal education.

Yoga and Meditation

The Graduate College is hosting an online Yoga and Meditation event on May 7, 2020 from 11:30 am - 12:30 pm! Facilitated by Dr. Pharr and Dr. Lough, learn how to appreciate your mind and body by joining us for 60 minutes of yoga and meditation.
The Troesh Center for Entrepreneurship and Innovation operates as an administrative unit within the UNLV Lee Business School. As a center of excellence, the Troesh Center is focused on providing opportunities for students, faculty and the community to learn about entrepreneurship.

The center manages the entrepreneurship curriculum across the university, is a hub for entrepreneurship research, supports entrepreneurial activities in southern Nevada, and offers guidance to internal and external stakeholders on obtaining angel capital.